

Social Emotional Learning and the Arts: Exploring Connections and Implications

Nov. 11, 2019; 9 am - 3 pm
at Foundation for Educational Administration Conference Center
12 Centre Drive, Monroe, NJ 08831

Presenters: Dr. Maurice Elias, Professor of Psychology, Rutgers University, Director, Rutgers Social-Emotional and Character Development Lab and Alison Scott-Williams, Vice President, Arts Education, New Jersey Performing Arts Center

High-quality arts education is a powerful catalyst for social emotional learning. In this session participants will explore how learning in and through the arts fosters social emotional growth and contributes to positive school culture. The natural alignment between arts education and the five social emotional competencies will be closely examined through colorful examples, demonstrating the many implications. This session will empower teachers and administrators to cultivate connections between their arts programs and the New Jersey Social Emotional Competencies with greater intention, in order to impact the student experience.

 Subscription Model Eligible: Anyone in your school or district can use an individual session for any FEA professional learning opportunity, as well as designated legal workshops offered through LEGAL ONE, between July 1, 2019 and June 30, 2020. For further information, visit www.njpsa.org/fea-professional-subscription-model-sign-up

This session would be an ideal in-district program to bring to your district.
