

NJPSA ELL Supervisors' Committee Webinars

Best Practices for Serving ELLs and their Families During the Pandemic, Part I & II.

Part I

April 20, 2020; 1 pm

- Promoting Strategies for Assisting ELLs in a Virtual Learning Environment (particularly for those who have limited technological literacy and/or minimal family support for navigating technology)
Presenter: JoAnne M. Negrin, Ed.D., Supervisor of ESL, World Languages, Bilingual Education, and Performing Arts, Vineland Public Schools
- Collaborating with General Education Teachers in Assisting ELLs with Modified Course Work
Presenters: Laura M. Arredondo, Ed.D., Supervisor of World Language and ELL Programs, Hunterdon Central Regional High School; Lucy Lakata, Ed.D., ESL Instructional Coach, K-8, Red Bank Borough Public Schools
- Identifying Reasonable Daily Online Schedules for ELLs' Learning & for the Teachers Who Care for Them
Presenter: JoAnne M. Negrin, Ed.D., Supervisor of ESL, World Languages, Bilingual Education, and Performing Arts, Vineland Public Schools

Part II

April 27, 2020; 1 pm

- Assessing ELLs' Progress
Presenter: Julie Ochoa, Supervisor ESL/BIL Programs, Franklin Township Public Schools
- Supporting Families of ELLs with Online Learning (and other issues)
Presenters: Julie Ochoa, Supervisor ESL/BIL Programs, Franklin Township Public Schools; Lucy Lakata, Ed.D., ESL Instructional Coach, K-8, Red Bank Borough Public Schools; Violeta Katsikis, District Supervisor of Curriculum and Instruction, Cherry Hill Public Schools
- Incorporating SEL and Culturally Responsive Instruction in Virtual Lessons
Presenter: Sandra GB Iturbides, Supervisor, ESL/Bilingual Programs, Trenton Public Schools

www.njpsa.org